

AAOHN CORPORATE MEMBERSHIP

The American Association of Occupational Health Nurses (AAOHN) is pleased to offer corporate membership to qualifying organizations.

Overview:

Business organizations and hospital systems that employ occupational health nurses or who are interested in occupational health nursing and have over 10 current and/or potential members are eligible for the corporate membership.

Program benefits include:

- Price reduction — The more members you have, the greater the discount on membership rate and products.
- Ease of joining — The employer will pay one flat rate and employees sign up on the AAOHN website using a discount code that allows them to join.
- Special offers — Complimentary access to the Workplace Violence Prevention Program Webinar Series.

Fee Structure:

Corporate rates will be tiered based on amount of employees.
